What is the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines?

The 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines is a TSA regulation for carry-on liquids that Alaska strictly enforces +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. It means each passenger can bring liquids in containers of 4 ounces (100 milliliters) or less, all fitting into a single 1-quart clear plastic bag, with one bag per passenger +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. This applies to gels, aerosols, creams, and pastes +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Medications, baby formula, and breast milk are exempt but must be declared at security +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For questions about exceptions or to confirm what you can bring on your Alaska flight, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before packing +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

Does Alaska Airlines enforce the 3-1-1 rule strictly?

Yes, Alaska Airlines enforces the TSA 3-1-1 rule strictly at all airports across the United States +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Security screening is handled by TSA, but Alaska gate agents may remind passengers of the rule before check-in +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Any liquid container larger than 4 ounces (100 ml) in carry-on baggage will be confiscated, regardless of how much liquid remains inside +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Exceptions include medically necessary liquids and infant care items, which require separate screening +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To avoid losing your items at security, pack larger toiletries in checked baggage +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For clarification on exemptions, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before your flight +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

What liquids count under the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska flights?

The 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines applies to all liquids, gels, aerosols, creams, pastes, and lotions +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Common examples include shampoo, conditioner, sunscreen, toothpaste, hand sanitizer, hair gel, shaving cream, makeup removers, liquid foundation, deodorant sprays, perfumes, and contact lens solution +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Even peanut butter, jam, honey, and yogurt are considered liquids by TSA standards +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Each container must be 4 ounces (100 ml) or less +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For a complete list of prohibited or restricted items on your Alaska flight, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 and speak with a representative +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

Can I bring a 4 oz bottle on Alaska Airlines if it's half full?

No, Alaska Airlines follows TSA regulations that consider the container size, not the amount inside +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. A 4-ounce bottle that is half full still violates the 3-1-1 rule because the container exceeds 4 ounces (100 ml) +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. The rule is based on the manufacturer's labeled capacity, not the actual liquid volume +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. You must transfer liquids into containers of 4 ounces or less +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Empty 4-ounce bottles are allowed but may raise questions at security +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To avoid confiscation, use travel-sized containers or pack larger bottles in checked luggage +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For further clarification, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

How many 3 oz bottles can I bring on Alaska Airlines?

Under the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines, you can bring as many 4-ounce (100 ml) bottles as fit comfortably inside a single 1-quart clear plastic bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Typically, this accommodates 8 to 10 travel-sized bottles, depending on their shape and how tightly they are packed +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Each passenger is limited to one quart-sized bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. The bag must close completely without being overstuffed or tied +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. If TSA cannot see through the bag or if it's overflowing, you may be asked to remove items +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For personalized packing advice, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Does Alaska Airlines allow frozen liquids under the 3-1-1 rule?

Frozen liquids are treated differently on Alaska Airlines +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. TSA rules state that frozen liquids must be solid enough that they do not melt into a liquid state during screening +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. If partially melted, they fall under the 3-1-1 rule and must comply with container size limits +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Gel ice packs are allowed only if they are frozen solid and used to medically necessary items or breast milk +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For non-medical frozen items like freezer pops, standard 3-1-1 limits apply +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To confirm whether your frozen item will pass security on your Alaska flight, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before traveling +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

What happens if I forget the 3-1-1 rule at Alaska Airlines security?

If you forget the 3-1-1 rule at Alaska Airlines security, TSA officers will give you the option to either return to the check-in counter to place non-compliant liquids in checked baggage, surrender the items voluntarily, or abandon them +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Surrendered liquids are discarded and cannot be recovered +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Some airports have mail-back stations, but these are rare +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To avoid delays, double-check your carry-on before arriving at the airport +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Alaska recommends arriving at least 2 hours before domestic flights to allow time for security issues +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For help rebooking if you miss your flight due to security delays, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Does the 3-1-1 rule apply to Alaska Airlines checked baggage?

No, the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines applies only to carry-on baggage and personal items +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. In checked baggage, you can pack larger liquid containers up to 70 ounces (2 liters) or more, with some restrictions +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Hazardous materials like flammable liquids, paint thinner, and certain aerosols are prohibited entirely +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Alcoholic beverages over 140 proof cannot be checked +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For most toiletries, there is no size limit in checked bags, but pack securely to prevent leaks +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To confirm whether a specific liquid is allowed in checked luggage on your Alaska flight, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Are prescription medicines exempt from the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska?

Yes, prescription and over-the-counter medications are exempt from the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. You may carry medically necessary liquids, gels, and aerosols in quantities exceeding 4 ounces, but you must declare them to TSA officers at security +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. They will be subject to additional screening, which may include opening the container +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Insulin, liquid antibiotics, eye drops, and breathing treatments are common examples +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Carry a doctor's note or prescription label to avoid issues +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For specific guidance on traveling with medication on Alaska flights, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before departure +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

Does the 3-1-1 rule apply to Alaska Airlines international flights?

Yes, the TSA 3-1-1 rule applies to all Alaska Airlines flights departing from US airports, including international destinations like Mexico, Costa Rica, and Belize +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. However, on return flights from international cities, you must follow local security regulations, which may differ slightly but generally align with the 3-1-1 standard +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For flights originating outside the US, check the local airport's liquid rules, as some countries allow only 100 ml total, not per container +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To confirm international liquid restrictions for your specific Alaska itinerary, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before traveling +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

Can I bring duty-free liquids on Alaska Airlines connecting flights?

Duty-free liquids purchased after security are generally allowed on Alaska Airlines connecting flights, but with important restrictions +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. If you have a connecting flight, the duty-free liquid must be sealed in a STEB (Security Tamper-Evident Bag) with a visible receipt dated within 24 hours +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For flights connecting through a different terminal or requiring re-screening, your duty-free liquids may be confiscated +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Alaska recommends packing duty-free purchases in checked baggage whenever possible +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To avoid losing expensive items on connecting itineraries, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 for specific advice based on your route +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

What is the best quart-sized bag for Alaska Airlines 3-1-1 rule?

The best quart-sized bag for the Alaska Airlines 3-1-1 rule is a clear, resealable plastic bag measuring approximately 7 x 8 inches +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. TSA-approved options include Ziploc brand quart bags or similar store-brand equivalents +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. The bag must be completely transparent with no tinting, logos, or patterns that obscure visibility +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Avoid using bags with sliders or zippers that are difficult to open for inspection +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Reusable silicone bags are allowed only if they are fully clear +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For a list of TSA-approved 3-1-1 bags or to order compliant bags for your Alaska flight, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Does Alaska Airlines provide 3-1-1 bags at the airport?

Alaska Airlines does not typically provide free 3-1-1 compliant bags at ticket counters or gates +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Some airports have vending machines selling travel-sized toiletry kits and quart bags, but these are not guaranteed +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. TSA checkpoints may have a limited supply of bags, but they are often out of stock +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR

+44-(808)-(164)-2787. To avoid stress, pack your own clear quart-sized bag before arriving at the airport +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Alaska recommends preparing your 3-1-1 bag at home as part of your packing routine +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For last-minute packing tips or to ask about airport amenities, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Can I bring hand sanitizer over 4 oz on Alaska Airlines?

Due to COVID-19, TSA temporarily allowed larger hand sanitizer containers up to 12 ounces +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. As of 2026, this exemption has ended +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Standard 3-1-1 rules apply: hand sanitizer containers must be 4 ounces (100 ml) or less and fit inside your quart-sized bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Larger bottles can be packed in checked luggage +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. However, disinfecting wipes are not considered liquids and can be any size +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For passengers with medical needs requiring larger amounts of sanitizer, a doctor's note may help, but TSA officers have final discretion +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For current policy updates, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before flying +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

How does Alaska Airlines 3-1-1 rule work for families with children?

For families with children on Alaska Airlines, the 3-1-1 rule applies per passenger, meaning each parent and each child gets their own quart-sized bag of liquids +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Children under 2 years old traveling as lap infants also receive their own 3-1-1 allowance +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Baby formula, breast milk, juice, and pureed baby food are exempt from size limits and do not need to fit in the quart bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. However, you must declare these items at security for separate screening +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For traveling with multiple children or to confirm specific family exemptions, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 before your flight +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

What happens if my 3-1-1 bag is too big on Alaska Airlines?

If your 3-1-1 bag exceeds the one-quart size limit on Alaska Airlines, TSA officers will ask you to repack into a compliant bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. If you don't have a smaller bag, you may be asked to surrender items until the bag fits the standard +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Some airports provide free quart-sized bags, but many do not +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Overstuffed bags that cannot close completely are also rejected +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. The best practice is to use a standard Ziploc quart bag or a bag of similar dimensions +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For questions about bag size enforcement at specific airports, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 1642787 for location-specific advice +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.

Does Alaska Airlines 3-1-1 rule apply to Alaska Lounge?

The 3-1-1 rule applies to security screening, not inside the Alaska Lounge +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Once you pass through TSA, you can bring larger liquids purchased inside the terminal, including full-sized drinks, into the Alaska Lounge and onto your flight +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. However, any liquid you bring from outside the terminal must still comply with 3-1-1 rules +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Lounge amenities include complimentary beverages, so you don't need to bring your own +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For lounge access eligibility or to confirm what you can carry from the lounge to your gate, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Can I bring sunscreen over 4 oz on Alaska Airlines?

Sunscreen is subject to the standard 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Containers larger than 4 ounces (100 ml) are not allowed in carry-on baggage, regardless of whether the sunscreen is lotion, spray, or gel +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. You must either transfer sunscreen to travel-sized containers or pack full-sized bottles in checked baggage +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. TSA does not make exceptions for expensive sunscreen brands +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For passengers traveling to sunny destinations like Hawaii, Mexico, or Costa Rica on Alaska, consider buying sunscreen after security or at your destination +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For current sunscreen policy updates, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Does the 3-1-1 rule apply to Alaska Airlines First Class passengers?

Yes, the 3-1-1 rule applies equally to all passengers on Alaska Airlines, regardless of cabin class +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. First Class passengers receive no exemptions for carry-on liquids +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. However, Alaska's First Class amenity kits often include travel-sized toiletries that already comply with 3-1-1 rules +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Additionally, First Class passengers have access to Alaska Lounges where full-sized liquids can be consumed before the flight +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For security screening, First Class does not have a separate, faster line at most airports +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To understand First Class benefits related to baggage, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Can I bring ice packs in my carry-on under the 3-1-1 rule?

Ice packs and gel packs are allowed on Alaska Airlines only when used to keep medically necessary items, breast milk, or baby formula cool +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For non-medical purposes, gel ice packs are treated as liquids and must comply with the 3-1-1 rule: each ice pack must be 4 ounces or less and fit in your quart-sized bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Frozen gel packs that are completely solid may be allowed, but TSA officers have discretion +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For medical ice packs, declare them at security +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For guidance on traveling with coolers or temperature-sensitive items on Alaska flights, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

How do I pack makeup under the Alaska Airlines 3-1-1 rule?

Under the Alaska Airlines 3-1-1 rule, liquid makeup products like foundation, liquid lipstick, concealer, mascara, and liquid eyeliner must be in containers of 4 ounces or less and fit in your quart-sized bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Powder makeup, solid lipstick, and eyeshadow palettes are not restricted +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Cream-based products like blush sticks or concealer pots are considered liquids +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For travel, invest in travel-sized makeup containers or use samples +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For a full day of makeup, consider checking a bag +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To confirm whether a specific makeup product qualifies as a liquid, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Does Alaska Airlines allow empty water bottles past security?

Yes, Alaska Airlines allows empty water bottles and reusable containers through TSA security without restriction, as the 3-1-1 rule applies only to liquids +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Once past security, you can fill your bottle at water fountains or bottle-filling stations in the terminal +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Many airports have hydration stations near gates +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Alaska encourages passengers to bring reusable bottles to reduce single-use plastic waste +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Just ensure the bottle is completely empty before reaching the security checkpoint +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For information about water bottle filling stations at specific airports served by Alaska, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

What is the penalty for violating the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines?

Violating the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines does not result in a fine or legal penalty, but TSA will confiscate non-compliant liquids +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. You may also face additional screening, pat-downs, or bag searches, which can cause you to miss your flight +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Repeated violations may flag your boarding pass for extra scrutiny on future flights +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. Alaska does not refund tickets for flights missed due to security delays caused by 3-1-1 violations +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. To avoid delays and lost items, review TSA guidelines before packing +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. For help rebooking if you miss your Alaska flight due to security issues, call 1-877-407-0188 or 44 (808) 164278

Can I bring contact lens solution over 4 oz on Alaska?

Contact lens solution is considered a medically necessary liquid and may be exempt from the 3-1-1 rule on Alaska Airlines, but you must declare it at security +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787. TSA allows reasonable quantities of contact lens solution exceeding 4 ounces, but the bottle may be subject to additional screening, including opening and testing +1 (877)--(407)–0188 OR +44-(808)-(164)-2787.
